You Don't Need a TITLE to be a Leader. Leadership is influence. A leader is a team player that works for the success of the entire team and organization. A leader empowers their coworkers for the greater good of the organization.

Get a jump start on your growth plan. Leadership skills to learn:

- Become a person of influence
- Learn to lead from any position
- Develop your career ladder
- Grow your leadership skills
- Learn life skills for success

The class participants will be a blend of operators, foremen, office staff, and new road superintendents.

A copy of, You Don't Need a TITLE to be a Leader, will be given to each participant. This book is an awesome tool for leadership development.

Leanna Emmer: NDLTAP Technical Representative. Leanna has worked cooperatively with others for over 40 years. Her past experience includes 15 years as the supervisor in the Permit Office of the ND Highway Patrol. As a supervisor she also worked collaboratively with the Department of Transportation, motor carrier industry and other government entities on policies and concerns relating to vehicle size and weight transportation issues.

Dale Heglund. NDLTAP Program Director. Dale has forty years of transportation experience ranging from equipment operator to design engineer. His career focus has been to promote quality roadway network by helping others understand roadway engineering principles, the synergies of working cooperatively with others, leadership skills, and new technology implementation processes.
